GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

CHAPTER 1 – GENERAL PROVISIONS

1.1 These regulations are applicable to all exhibitors or their principles and agents. If the case arises, it completes the specific regulations proper to each event with a "technical guide" or "exhibitor's manual". By signing their stand contract, the exhibitors accept all the terms therein.

1.2 The organizer decides alone on the location, the length, the opening and closing time of the event, the prices of stands, of entrance fees as well as the closing date of inscriptions. He alone determines the categories of people or companies admitted to exhibit and/or visit the event as well as the list of products or services presented.

1.3 The organizer reserves the right, without the possibility for participants to claim any indemnity, of deciding at any time, the displacement, the prolongation, the postponement or the early closing of the trade show. The organizer may anytime change the name of the show, according to the evolution of the market or on public request; the exhibitor cannot consider the changing of the name as a significant modification that could break the stand contract, especially for exhibitors engaged for many sessions.

1.4 Any derogation is only valid, excepting stipulation to the contrary, for the session(s) concerned and can in no way apply to other events.

CHAPTER 2 – REGISTRATIONS, ADMISSIONS, GUARANTEES

2.1 The request to exhibit is filled out on an official stand contract made by the organizer.

2.2 As soon as the organizer receives the stand contract, the two parties are contractually bound.

2.3 The organizer reserves the right of rejecting, on a temporary or definite basis, any inscription request that does not meet the required conditions. Can notably constitute temporary or definite rejection motives, incomplete forwarding of the information required, failure of payment or guarantees demanded by the organizer, even payments related to former exhibitions, the non-observance of previous obligations and notably of these General Regulations, the non-suitability of the requesting party, of his products or services, with the aim, the spirit or the image of the event, the legal receivership of the exhibitor, his recognized state of insolvency, the non-obtaining of administrative or legal authorizations if the case arises needed for his presence during the event, the risk of affecting, by his presence, the protected interests of consumers and of young people, and law and order in general, the tranquility of other exhibitors, the safety and pleasure of visitors.

2.4 The exhibitor shall inform the organizer on any element or event, which has taken place or has been revealed since his inscription, and of a nature to justify a re-examination of his admission.

2.5 Furthermore, the organizer reserves the right of requesting, at any time, any additional information in relation with the foregoing and, if the case arises, of reviewing an admission decision pronounced on indications that were false, erroneous, or that have become inexact. The down payment paid then remains acquired for the organizer who furthermore reserves the right of taking legal action for the payment of the whole price.

2.6 The right resultant of the inscription is personal and non-transferable. The admission bears no admissibility right for a future event, and even in case of a participation agreement for several sessions.

2.7 Except derogation granted by the organizer by special request on their part, groups can only exhibit on collective stands if every company, member of the group, is individually admitted and has committed to pay the registration and insurance fees.

2.8 If a contract is signed for a number of sessions, the area cannot be reduced by more than 5% in relation to the largest area rented.

CHAPTER 3 – REGISTRATION AND PARTICIPATION FEES FOR EXHIBITORS

3.1 Notwithstanding exceptional conditions, the organizer reserves the right to refuse any contract which is not accompanied by a deposit payment.

3.2 The non-payment of the balance on the required due date, or the non-payment of a required instalment, implies, without prior injunction, loss of the right to exhibit, the down payment remains irrevocably acquired by the organizer.

3.3 Furthermore, the organizer reserves the right of taking legal action for the payment of the balance of the price due, in spite of the non-participation, whatever the reason may be, of the registered exhibitor. In the case where an exhibitor, for any reason, does not occupy his stand on the event's opening day, or on the installation deadline date set by the organizer, he is considered as having abandoned. Without prejudice of any other measures taken, at the exhibitor's risks and peril, the organizer can dispose of the failing exhibitor's stand and the exhibitor shall not be able to claim for repayment, nor indemnity, even if the stand is attributed to another exhibitor.

3.4 The payment schedule that the participant agrees to respect is the following: a 40% deposit of the full amount including VAT when the organizer receives the stand contract and the balance by November 30, 2018. If the exhibitor registers late for the show, the payments to be made shall be that of the sum or sums due at the given date.

3.5 All our services are payable at the head office of EUROPEXPO. The only means of payment accepted are cheque, credit card, bank transfer or cash. The failure to pay a single paper or bill at its due date immediately makes the whole debt payable even if not yet due. On the date of the payment and without the need of an injunction, the interests on overdue payments run in full right at the conventional rate of 2% per overdue month.

3.6 The exhibitor shall pay for any expenses resulting directly or indirectly from failure to pay, notably including protest expenses and recovery expenses (litigation and legal expenses...) including those arising from registered mail.

3.7 In the event of non-payment of all or part of the sums owed by the exhibitor towards EUROPEXPO for any reason whatsoever, EUROPEXPO reserves the right, following unsuccessful reminders and/or injunctions, to refrain from delivering the stand to the exhibitor or else to forbid him access to the stand by all appropriate and lawful means, regardless of the provisions here above and without prejudice to its right to claim an indemnification for the harm it has suffered.

CHAPTER 4 – REGISTRATION AND PARTICIPATION FEES FOR VISITORS

4.1 Notwithstanding exceptional conditions, the organizer reserves the right to refuse any contract which is not accompanied by a payment.

4.2 The organizer reserves the right of taking legal action for the payment of the price due, in spite of the non-participation, whatever the reason may be, of the registered participant.

4.3 All our services are payable at the head office of EUROPEXPO. The only means of payment accepted are cheque, credit card, bank transfer or cash.

4.4 The participant shall pay for any expenses resulting directly or indirectly from failure to pay, notably including protest expenses and recovery expenses (litigation and legal expenses...) including those arising from registered mail.

4.5 In the event of non-payment of all or part of the sums owed by the participant towards the organizer for any reason whatsoever, EUROPEXPO reserves the right, following unsuccessful reminders and/or injunctions, to forbid the participant(s) access to the event by all appropriate and lawful means, regardless of the provisions here above and without prejudice to its right to claim an indemnification for the harm it has suffered.

CHAPTER 5 – ACCREDITATION OF PARTICIPANTS' EMPLOYEES

Participants may accredit only their full-time employees from a single establishment, in a single country. The organizer may at any time request documentary evidence thereof. In the event a participant accredits any person who does not meet the foregoing requirements, they shall be required to pay the registration fee applicable to visitors, as specified in the participation contract.

CHAPTER 6 - ADVERTISING

6.1 The organizer reserves the exclusive right to post advertising in the venue where the event is held and in the immediate surrounding area. All forms of advertising are strictly forbidden, with the exception of advertising that uses the media defined below, the advertising spaces that the organizer assigns and the advertising materials displayed within the exhibitor's stand. In the event of non-compliance with these requirements, the organizer may remove such advertising at any time without prior notice.

6.2 Participants shall not in any form whatsoever display products or services or advertise companies or businesses that are not participants, without the organizer's prior written authorization.

6.3 Furthermore, the distribution of leaflets, brochures, flyers or documents of any type for promotional or any other purposes is strictly limited within the event venue and the immediate surrounding area and is subject to organizer's prior authorization.

6.4 Participants shall not, in any manner whatsoever, advertise any practitioner or establishment that is a member of a regulated profession for which the national and official organization that represents the profession prohibits advertising.

CHAPTER 7 – IPEM'S MEDIA AND CONTENT

7.1 The organizer may provide the participants with newsletters, magazines, directories, databases, conference and events programs, websites and applications specific to the event (hereinafter, "IPEM's Media" or "its Media").

7.2 The organizer is the owner and publisher of this Media, which it publishes and distributes, with the exception of the networking content published online by Participants via MyIPEM.

7.3 This Media is protected and the participant shall therefore not use it in any manner whatsoever without the organizer's prior written agreement. Therefore, participants shall in no event reproduce, modify, delete, distribute, grant and/or use IPEM's media content, in whole or in part, and in any manner whatsoever, without the prior written agreement of the organizer or the right holders. Otherwise, participants risk being liable or being held liable.

7.4 The participants authorize the organizer to reproduce and use its own content, for the time period during which IPEM's Media is distributed, free of charge and in the whole world. The participant shall be solely liable for the information and documents that it provides and that are published and distributed via IPEM's Media. The participant may not hold the organizer liable, including in the event of an error and/or omission, in particular if due to erroneous or incomplete information provided by the participant. Furthermore, the Participant shall ensure that it holds all necessary authorizations and, failing this, shall hold the organizer harmless in the event of any recourse.

7.5 Placing advertising in IPEM's Media: the organizer shall determine the advertising spaces available in its Media and has a right to control all advertising distributed thereon in order to ensure compliance with applicable laws and protect the interests of the event and/or the participants. In particular, the organizer may delete any statements that may directly or indirectly draw any participant away from the event venue, offend the public, present false or misleading information or promote unlawful or regulated activities, services or products, as well as any unlawful statement or image.

7.6 In the specific situation where a participant has placed an order for advertising on IPEM's Media but fails to provide the organizer with the information and documents necessary for publication in a timely manner, the organizer reserves the right to make other arrangements with respect to such advertising space. In such case, the participant shall not be entitled to claim a refund of the price of its order or any compensation.

7.7 The documents used to publish advertising shall be returned to the Participant or its representative only upon request.

CHAPTER 8 – UNFAIR COMPETITION AND PARASITIC PRACTICES

8.1 Participants formally undertake not to engage in activities that are identical or similar to those conducted in the event venue, the immediate surrounding area or in any other exhibition area that the organizer may designate, in particular, in places such as hotels or other sites external to the said event, during the period of the event.

8.2 Accordingly, participants in particular undertake not to directly or indirectly draw any other participant away from any exhibition area for the purpose of presenting any of its products and/or services that are within the scope of the event. The organizer reserves the right to have any breach of this provision evidenced by a sworn officer, to have the relevant participant pay the costs associated therewith and to initiate any legal action enabling it to assert its rights.

CHAPTER 9 – METHODS OF CANCELLATION BY THE EXHIBITOR

The stand space contract is definitive and irrevocable. If the exhibitor cancels or withdraws, at whatever time and for whatever reason, he shall be deemed responsible for the payment in full of the amount of his participation and every invoice relating to it.

CHAPTER 10 – ATTRIBUTION OF SPACES

10.1 The organizer establishes the plan of the event and proceeds to the distribution of spaces.

10.2 The organizer reserves the right to modify, every time he finds it suitable, in the interest of the event, the area, the layout and the emplacement of show surfaces, and even in case of a participation agreement for several sessions.

10.3 The plans sent and the descriptions of stands include, if the location of the event allows it, dimensions as accurate as possible, it is up to exhibitors to make sure of their compliance before setting them up.

10.4 The organizer cannot be held responsible for slight differences (+/- 10%), that could be noted between the dimensions indicated and the real dimensions of the pitch, nor for modifications made in the stands' environment (modification of neighboring stands, reconfiguration of alleys...) during the booking period.

CHAPTER 11 – OCCUPATION AND USE OF STANDS

11.1 It is specifically prohibited to sell, sublet, exchange, gratuitously or against payment, all or part of the emplacement attributed by the organizer. The goods exhibited shall directly depend on the exhibitor's activity. In the case of a representation, or a company trade agency, who are indirectly present in the trade show, the organizer shall receive from indirect exhibitors the same registration and insurance fees as from direct exhibitors.

11.2 Except prior written authorization by the organizer, the exhibitor cannot present on his stand materials, products or services other than those listed in the stand contract and meeting the approved list of goods or services established by the organizer.

11.3 The exhibitor cannot, under any form whatever, present products or services or do advertising for companies or entrepreneurs who are not exhibitors, except prior written authorization by the organizer.

11.4 Stands must be cleaned every day and cleaning must be completed before the opening of the show every morning.

11.5 Exhibitors and their staff must be presentable and observe decent behavior towards participants (no calling out, no exceeding the stand boundaries) and towards other exhibitors.

11.6 The stand should be continuously occupied during opening hours for exhibitors (including setting up, deliveries and dismantling) as well as during the official opening hours for visitors. The non-observance of this stipulation may entail temporary or definite exclusion measures or by the organizer.

11.7 Exhibitors shall not empty their stand before the end of the event.

CHAPTER 12 – ACCESS TO THE EVENT

12.1 Persons without an entrance pass emitted by the organizer shall not be admitted to the event.

12.2 The organizer reserves the right to deny entry to or expel anyone whose presence or behavior might endanger the calm, the safety or the image of the event.

12.3 Badges giving access to the show are allotted to exhibitors according to rules set by the organizer.

12.4 No pets, even those of visitors, can be admitted to the event. The owner or person accompanying any animal on the show shall be deemed responsible for any damage or harm caused by or to the aforementioned animal.

CHAPTER 13– CONTACT AND COMMUNICATION WITH THE PUBLIC

13.1 The exhibitor expressly abandons any legal action, either against the organizer or against the producers or distributors, because of the distribution, for the needs of the event, in France and abroad, on television, internet, videos or any other support (books, folders), of his image, of that of his stand, of his trade name, of his trademark, of his personnel, of his products or services and he guarantees the organizer from any recourse of his employees, sub-contractors and co-contractors, committing in advance to impose this obligation to them.

13.2 The organizer can in no way be held responsible for the non-respect of legislation, in particular relating to customs, concerning the products exhibited on stands and the staff working for the exhibitor.

CHAPTER 14 – COLLECTION AND USE OF THE DATA

14.1 Exhibitors are informed that their personal data, i.e. all information requested of them, in particular at the time they register for the event, and that enables them to be (directly or indirectly) identified (such as their surname, first name, position, email address, telephone and fax numbers and photographs) is indispensable for concluding the participation contract and gaining admission to the event and is processed electronically.

14.2 For the purposes of fulfilling the participation contract, all or some of this personal data may be transmitted anywhere in the world, including at times to countries that may not necessarily guarantee a level of data protection equivalent to that guaranteed by the French Data Protection Act, as amended.

14.3 This personal data is communicated through MyIPEM to other participants who may be located anywhere in the world, in order to enable them to prepare for the event and schedule their business appointments. In this regard, the participants undertake not to use such data for any other purpose. The organizer reserves the right to enjoin nuisances caused by such use by any means.

14.4 This personal data may be communicated to third parties that have entered into contracts with the organizer, in particular EUROPEXPO's representatives, service providers and partners, which may be located anywhere in the world.

14.5 This personal data may be used on all distribution and promotional media in connection with IPEM, including over the internet.

14.6 In accordance with the French Data Protection Act of 6 January 1978, as amended, participants may exercise their right to access, correct and oppose the use of their personal data by writing to the following email address: carine.colonna@europ-expo.com.

CHAPTER 15 – INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY AND MISCELLANEOUS RIGHTS

15.1 The exhibitor shall see to the intellectual protection of equipment, products and services he exposes (patents, trademarks, models...), in compliance with legal and regulatory stipulations in force. These measures should be taken before the presentation of equipment, products or services, the organizer accepts no responsibility in this field, notably in case of litigation with another exhibitor or a visitor.

15.2 Failing an agreement between the Authors, Composers and Music Editors Society (S.A.C.E.M), the exhibitors shall negotiate directly with the S.A.C.E.M if they make use of music inside the event. The organizer accepts no responsibility of this order.

15.3 The taking of films or photography may be accepted with the written authorization of the organizer, within the event's boundaries. A copy of all shots taken must be sent to the organizer within 15 days of the end of the event. Any authorization granted may be withdrawn at any moment.

15.4 The organizer may forbid visitors to take photos or films.

CHAPTER 16 – INSURANCE

16.1 The exhibitor shall obligatorily take out the insurance cover offered by the organizer and appearing on the stand contract.

16.2 The clauses, guaranties, franchises and exclusions (including theft, which must be covered by the exhibitor) are in the documents sent to the exhibitor.

16.3 The insurance conditions can be modified or amended according to the demands of the insurers. The possible modifications have to be accepted by the exhibitor, and cannot, in any circumstances, be an argument for contesting the stand contract.

CHAPTER 17 – LIABILITY

17.1 The exhibitor is fully and entirely responsible for any damages to equipment or to people caused personally by them, by their personnel, by the people under their responsibility or by any object or animal belonging to them or of which they have the care of or by any element of their stand, decoration, attachment or other the setting up and dismantling of which, the compliance with regulations and usage rules are carried out under the full and entire responsibility of the exhibitor.

17.2 The exhibitor commits to let his stand be visited by the organizer, by any representative of the latter or by any person duly mandated and notably by the security service or commission, during the trade show's opening or closing hours so as to notably check that the exhibitor fulfils all his obligations and that the conditions of security are observed and put in compliance and fill any request by the organizer related to the safety of property or of persons during the trade show. Failing, the exhibitor that does not meet the demands of the organizer shall immediately leave the premises, without being able to demand to be paid back and shall in all cases be held responsible of any damages that could arise for EUROPEXPO, other intervening parties or any other person and that would be the consequence of his violation of a rule.

CHAPTER 18 – MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

18.1 The organizer can cancel or defer the event if he notes a notoriously insufficient number of inscriptions. The exhibitor is then refunded for the amount of his down payment or of his participation.

Up to the first day of the event, the exhibitor assumes all the risks related to the eventual non achievement of the event and notably the exclusive charge of expenses he shall have engaged in anticipation of the event.

18.2 If the event were completely or partially cancelled, for one or several days, even for a few hours, on one or several sites, by an act incumbent to an exhibitor, EUROPEXPO cannot be sought on the subject and the payment foreseen in the stand contract would be entirely due.

18.3 The organizer can also cancel or defer the event in case of force majeure. If he were prevented of totally or partially observing the obligations incumbent to him in these general regulations by an act of God, a fortuitous matter, or the act of any person outside the organization and to the development of the trade show, he shall notify the other party and the agreement would be suspended. EUROPEXPO would then be dispensed, without having to pay any indemnity and without having its responsibility sought, of obligations resulting from these regulations and for as long as the cause or the effects of the force majeure shall not have ceased. The obligations thus suspended shall again be fulfilled as soon as the effects or the causes of non-fulfilment shall have ended. Constituting a force majeure justifying, at any time, the cancellation or deferment of the event, any new economic, political or social situations, at a local, national, or international level, not reasonably foreseeable, beyond the organizer's control, that would make the fulfilment of the event impossible or that would carry risks of troubles or disorders capable of grievously affecting the organization and the efficient development of the event or the security of property and of people. This shall notably be: in case of war, of revolution, explosions, strikes or other social perturbations, technical unemployment and in these cases, even if the cause is internal to the company, shortage or reduction of material or power supplies, interruption or perturbation of transports or other usual means of communication, riots, insurrection, attacks, fire, acts of terrorism, sabotage, demonstrations of any nature, torrential rain, inundations, epidemics, storms, very severe winds, nuclear explosions, falls of aircraft and spacecraft, hindrance of administrative order, lack of authorization, ... without being a limitative list. In any case EUROPEXPO can in no way see its responsibility sought and shall not be liable to any compensation, or indemnity whatsoever.

18.4 Whatever their validity, any grieves an exhibitor may have towards another exhibitor, participant, or the organizer shall be discussed outside of the show and must under no circumstances trouble the image or calm of the event.

18.5 The exhibitor commits not to refer a matter to a court before having previously implemented a procedure of amiable conciliation.

18.6 Any dispute shall come under the jurisdiction of the Paris courts.

18.7 By special agreement between the parties, these regulations are ruled under French law.
