PRIVATE DEBT Summit

PRELIMINARY AGENDA: January 24th, 2023, 4:30 PM to 6:30 PM

4:30 PM

Next-Frontier Leverage

As rate rises put pressure on the financing of leveraged transactions, this session will consider the suitability of alternative debt products that provide additional leverage.

- Company level: How preferred equity works and when it is used by sponsors.
- Portfolio level: How portfolio financing is used to benefit companies.
- Exploration of the growth trends and drivers.
- How do lenders evaluate the suitability for a company?
- Investor attitudes

PRELIMINARY AGENDA: January 24th, 2023, 4:30 PM to 6:30 PM

5:15 PM

Facing the Stress-Test

This discussion will consider how investors should stress-test their private credit portfolios in the face of a rapidly changing climate.

- How are funds positioned as they enter the first real test?
- What is the impact of a decade of loosening covenants when the going gets tough?
- What corners of private credit offer best resilience in the climate?
